UNILOC 2017 LLC,

v.
SQUARE ENIX HOLDINGS CO. LTD., and
SQUARE ENIX CO., LTD.,
Defendant.

1 It is hereby stipulated by the parties that the Court enter the following Order 2 protecting confidentiality of both party and non-party information to be disclosed in 3 this litigation, with Uniloc and Square Enix to separately address one issue with the 4 Court, to the extent necessary, as outlined in footnote 1 to this Order.

5 GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT:

6 This action is likely to involve information about sensitive products and/or 7 services, proprietary design and development materials of products and/or services,
8 source code, strategic decision-making information, marketing and sales information, 9 and/or proprietary information for which special protection from public disclosure and 10 dissemination and from use for any purpose other than prosecution of this action is 11 warranted. Such confidential and proprietary materials and information consist of,
12 among other things, confidential business or financial information, information
13 regarding confidential business practices, or other confidential research, development, 14 or commercial information (including information implicating confidentiality and 15 privacy rights of third parties), information otherwise generally unavailable to the 16 public, or which may be privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure under state 17 or federal statutes, court rules, case decisions, or common law. Accordingly, to 18 expedite the flow of information, to facilitate the prompt resolution of disputes over 19 confidentiality of discovery materials, to adequately protect information the parties are 20 entitled to keep confidential, to ensure that the parties are permitted reasonable 21 necessary uses of such material in preparation for and in the conduct of trial, to address 22 their handling at the end of the litigation, and serve the ends of justice, a protective 23 order for such information is justified in this matter. It is the intent of the parties that 24 information will not be designated as confidential for tactical reasons and that nothing 25 be so designated without a good faith belief that it has been maintained in a 26 confidential, non-public manner, and there is good cause why it should not be part of 27 the public record of this case.
28

1 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

2 Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production 3 of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from 4 public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation
5 may be warranted. This Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures
6 or responses to discovery and the protection it affords from public disclosure and use
7 extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential 8 treatment under the applicable legal principles and Civil Local Rules. As set forth in 9 paragraph 13.3 below, this Protective Order does not by itself entitle the Parties to file
10 confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures 11 that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks 12 permission from the Court to file material under seal.

13 2. DEFINITIONS

14 2.1 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation
15 of information or items under this Order.

16 2.2 “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items: information (regardless of how 17 it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under 18 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c).

19 2.3 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel of Record and House 20 Counsel (as well as their support staff).

21 2.4 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or 22 items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as 23 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES
24 ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE.”

25 2.5 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of 26 the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among 27 other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated 28 in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

1 2.6 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter
2 pertinent to the litigation who (1) has been retained by a Party or its Counsel to serve 3 as an expert witness or as a consultant in this action, (2) is not a past or current 4 employee of a Party or of a Party’s competitor, and (3) at the time of retention, is not 5 anticipated to become an employee of a Party or of a Party’s competitor.

6 2.7 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”
7 Information or Items: extremely sensitive “CONFIDENTIAL” information or items, 8 disclosure of which to another Party or Non-Party would create a substantial risk of 9 serious harm that could not be avoided by less restrictive means.

10 2.8 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE” Information or Items:
11 extremely sensitive “CONFIDENTIAL” information or items representing computer 12 code and associated comments and revision histories, formulas, engineering
13 specifications, or schematics that define or otherwise describe in detail the algorithms 14 or structure of software or hardware designs, disclosure of which to another Party or 15 Non-Party would create a substantial risk of serious harm that could not be avoided by 16 less restrictive means.

17 2.9 House Counsel: attorneys for the Parties that have responsibility for 18 making decisions dealing directly with the litigation of this action. House Counsel does 19 not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside counsel.¹

20 2.10 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or 21 other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

22 2.11 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a Party 23 to this action but are retained to represent or advise a Party to this action and have

26 ¹ The parties have one dispute concerning the inclusion of non-attorney, equivalent 27 personnel in the definition of “House Counsel” that the parties are continuing to discuss 28 and will separately address via the Local Rules and Magistrate Judge Scott’s procedures, to the extent necessary. However, in the interest of not having the lack of a Protective Order impede discovery and so that the parties can produce confidential information with adequate protections in place, the parties have stipulated to entry of this Protective Order.
