Case No. 3:21-cv-05502 EMC

STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER
STAYING CASE, VACATING CASE MANAGEMENT DATES, AND PROVIDING FOR EVENTUAL DISMISSAL

1 Pursuant to Civil Local Rules 6-2 and 7-12, Plaintiffs DoorDash, Inc. and Grubhub Inc., and
2 Defendant City and County of San Francisco (collectively, “the Parties”), hereby stipulate as follows:

3 WHEREAS, on June 28, 2022, San Francisco Supervisor Aaron Peskin introduced the 4 Ordinance attached hereto as Exhibit A (“the Ordinance”), which would amend certain provisions of 5 Article 53 of the San Francisco Police Code at issue in this action;

6 WHEREAS, Plaintiffs have decided that they are willing to dismiss the above-captioned action
7 if the Ordinance is enacted; and

8 WHEREAS, the Parties anticipate that enactment of the Ordinance may take several months in 9 the ordinary legislative process;

10 NOW, THEREFORE, in the interest of judicial economy and good cause showing, the 11 undersigned parties, by and through their counsel of record, hereby agree and stipulate, and the Court
12 hereby orders, as follows:

- 13 1. This action is hereby stayed;
- 14 2. All existing case management dates are vacated;
- 15 3. If the Ordinance is enacted, Plaintiffs shall dismiss this action, without prejudice to their 16 right to reinstate the above-captioned action (including, without limitation, the claims alleged and 17 remedies sought therein), as a result of any amendment to the Ordinance or future legislation, within 18 seven days of its effective date, each party to bear its own fees and costs;
- 19 4. If the Ordinance is not enacted, the Parties may stipulate to, or any party may file an 20 administrative motion requesting, a lifting of the stay and the establishment of new case management
21 dates.

22 The Parties respectfully request that the Court enter an Order approving this Stipulation.

23
24 IT IS SO STIPULATED.
