ORDER

The following order is entered in the above matter:

ORDER:

Disposition: JDGHD - JUDGMENT AFTER COMPLETED TRIAL TO THE COURT - HEARING IN DAMAGES

After a full Hearing, The Court found judgment in favor of the Plaintiff(s). The Defendant admitted that she did not open mail addressed to her regarding the debt.

This means the Defendant(s) lost the case and must pay:

Damages: 1,015.39

Prejudgment Interest:

Attorney Fees:

Total Damages: $1,015.39

Entry Fee: $95.00

Service: $8.05

Total Costs: $103.05

Total Amount of Damages and Costs: $1,118.44

Post-judgment Interest: Denied

The Defendant(s) must begin making weekly payments of $35.00, beginning 4/29/24.
Payable and Sent to: Plaintiff's attorney

If you won the case, you are the creditor. The court does not collect the money for you. If the debtor does not pay the judgment as ordered by the Court, you can ask the Court to order a wage, bank or property execution to collect the money. After the debtor has paid the judgment, you must file a satisfaction of judgment with the Clerk's Office.

If you lost the case, you are the debtor. You must pay the damages and costs by the date(s) ordered by the Court. If you do not pay by the date(s) shown in this order, the plaintiff can ask the Court to order an execution against you to attach your nonexempt wages, bank accounts or property. You will then have to pay both the money you owe and the State Marshal's fees and costs. If you have a serious reason why you cannot pay the money as ordered by the Court, you can file an appropriate motion asking the Court to change the terms of payment. Do not make payments to the Court. Payments are to be made to the plaintiff or their attorney.
