I. INTRODUCTION.....	1
II. DISCUSSION.....	2
Question 1: Did the Court have the authority to issue its April 18, 2022 Standing Order Regarding Disclosure Statements Required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 7.1?.....	2
Answer to Question 1: No. The Court’s April 18 Standing Order covers subject matter not appropriate for a standing order. Accordingly, the April 18 Standing Order should at minimum have gone through the more rigorous vetting process to be made a Local Rule. Since it did not, it is therefore void.....	2
Question 2: Without knowing the identity of the true owners of VLSI, how can the Court assure itself that it does not have a conflict of interest that precludes it from presiding over the case?.....	7
Answer to Question 2: The Court does know the identity of the true owners of VLSI sufficient to conclude that there is no conflict of interest or appearance of impropriety requiring disqualification.....	7
Question 3: Without knowing the identity of the true owners of VLSI, how can the Court assure itself that its presiding over the case will not create an appearance of impropriety?.....	10
Answer to Question 3: VLSI incorporates its response to Question 2 above. The Court does know the identity of the true owners of VLSI sufficient to conclude that there is no conflict of interest or appearance of impropriety requiring disqualification.....	10
Question 4: Should the Court dismiss the case because of VLSI’s failure to provide the information required by the Court’s April 18, 2022 Standing Order Regarding Disclosure Statements Required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 7.1?.....	12
Answer to Question 4: No. As explained above in VLSI’s response to Question 1, the Court lacks authority to enter the April 18 Standing Order.

Moreover, and in any event, as explained in VLSI’s responses to Questions 2 and 3, VLSI complied with the Order to the best of VLSI’s ability, and sufficient to allow the Court to confirm that no ethical conflict exists.....12
