Re: DI Jasper Holdings LP v. JUUL Labs, Inc.,
C.A. No. 2023-1060-NAC

Dear Counsel:

This letter confirms that oral argument on Plaintiff's Motion to Compel, or in the Alternative, to Strike is scheduled for Friday, April 26, 2024 at 1:30 pm.

Oral argument will take place as a web-based video conference using Zoom. My chambers will provide the parties with the meeting identification number and password. Any interested members of the press or the public seeking to attend the hearing shall contact chambers in advance of the hearing to obtain the meeting identification number and password. These credentials are confidential and shall not be shared without prior permission of the court.

By no later than 4:00 p.m., one business day before the hearing, the parties shall submit jointly to chambers a list of persons they expect to attend the hearing. During the hearing, counsel may display documents using the screen-sharing function, but please experiment using that function in advance to avoid inadvertently sharing your personal information with all in attendance.

The hearing will begin with a waiting room moderated by my chambers. As host of the meeting, my chambers will grant admission only to those participants appearing on the list provided by counsel along with members of the press and public who have contacted chambers per the instructions provided in this letter. Only authenticated users may join, so all attendees must register for and sign in to Zoom with the email address counsel provided. Please sign up for this service at <https://zoom.us/signup>. The free “Basic” plan will suffice. To facilitate identification and admittance from the waiting room, attendees are encouraged to use the name provided to chambers for their Zoom account.

Counsel presenting in the hearing are asked to join the meeting no later than ten minutes prior to the hearing’s scheduled time to allow our court reporters to conduct a sound check. All other attendees are asked to join the meeting no later than five minutes prior to the hearing’s scheduled time. The hearing will be locked for security purposes five minutes before the hearing is scheduled to begin, so do not arrive late.

No one may record the hearing.

All attendees shall mute their lines upon joining the meeting. During the meeting, only counsel presenting argument or otherwise addressing the court need connect using video. Others must choose the “audio only” option or simply check the “Stop Video” function. Counsel will need to remember to unmute their lines when it is their turn to speak. If counsel believes that it is necessary to address the court during another speaker’s presentation (for example, to raise confidentiality concerns), counsel shall verbally interject in as respectful a manner as possible. I retain the ability to mute participants.

Best practices are recommended: sit in a quiet place with reliable connectivity and test your equipment first. For those appearing by video, court attire is expected.

Sincerely,

/s/ Nathan A. Cook
