

Eric Gilchrist, Charlottesville, VA.

The Mountain Valley Pipeline's route is unacceptable and environmental irresponsible. It is so dangerous and stupid to drill under water bodies and not expect any damage or harm to our waterways. Our drinking water is at risk and so is more pristine wild areas. Only lay new pipes in areas where humans have already compromised the land. Why ruin more?