ORDER ON INTERESTED PERSONS
AND CORPORATE DISCLOSURE

This Court makes an active effort to review each case in order to identify parties and interested corporations in which the assigned District Judge or Magistrate judge may have an interest, as well as for other matters that might require consideration of recusal.

It is therefore ORDERED that, within fourteen days from the day of this Order or, if a party joins this action subsequent to the entry of this Order, from the date of a party's first appearance, each party, pro se party, governmental party, intervenor, non-party movant, and Rule 69 garnishee shall file and serve a "Certificate of Interested Persons and Corporate Disclosure Statement" substantially in the form attached.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that no party may seek discovery from any source before filing and serving a Certificate of Interested Persons and Corporate Disclosure Statement. A motion, memorandum, response, or other paper – including emergency motions – may be denied or stricken unless the filing party has previously filed and served a Certificate of Interested Persons and Corporate Disclosure Statement.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that each party has a continuing obligation to file and serve an amended Certificate of Interested Persons and Corporate Disclosure Statement within fourteen days of discovering any ground for amendment, for conflict of interest, for recusal, or for disqualification of the judicial officer.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that, in order to assist the Court in determining when a conflict of interest may exist, each party shall use the full caption of this case, including the names of all parties and intervenors, on all motions, memoranda, papers, and proposed orders submitted to the Clerk. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 10 (a); Local Rule 1.05(b).

DONE AND ORDERED at Orlando, Florida this 28th day of April, 2016.
