UNITED STATES' MOTION FOR LIMITED DEPOSITION STAY

Intervenor United States respectfully files this motion for a limited deposition stay. If permitted to proceed now, these depositions would interfere with the United States' upcoming trial, pending litigation, and ongoing grand-jury investigation. As explained in the accompanying brief that the United States is submitting to the Court ex parte because it contains grand-jury information, see Fed.R.Crim.P. 6(e), the Court should grant this motion.¹

¹ The United States is not filing a notice of presentment and not providing courtesy copies of this motion because the Court has suspended the operation of those rules. See Eighth Amended General Order 20-0012 at ¶¶ 5-6 (Nov. 13, 2020).

Dated: April 5, 2021

Respectfully submitted,

PAUL J. TORZILLI, Trial Attorney
