

UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

Washington, D.C.

In the Matter of

CERTAIN ELECTROCHEMICAL GLUCOSE
MONITORING SYSTEMS AND COMPONENTS
THEREOF

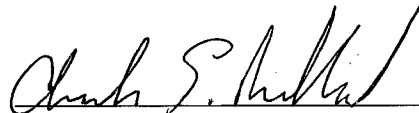

Inv. No. 337-TA-1075

NOTICE TO THE PARTIES REGARDING NUMBER OF ASSERTED CLAIMS AND
THE NUMBER OF CLAIMS TERMS PROPOSED FOR CONSTRUCTION

(February 27, 2018)

Having reviewed the parties' initial claim construction briefs, the undersigned notes that Respondent has proposed 22 terms for construction. The undersigned also notes that 95 claims have been asserted across two patents. Both of these numbers are excessive. Complainant is strongly encouraged to make a concerted effort to narrow the number of asserted claims. Respondent should likewise make a concerted effort to reduce the number of claim terms at issue to fewer than 10. Should the number of proposed claim terms remain above ten, the undersigned can only guarantee that the Markman order will issue before the evidentiary hearing. The parties are therefore directed to meet and confer no later than March 5, 2018 to discuss reducing the number of asserted claims, as well as the number of claim terms proposed for construction.

SO ORDERED.

Charles E. Bullock
Chief Administrative Law Judge
