

UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION
Washington, D.C.

In the Matter of

CERTAIN EARPIECE DEVICES AND COMPONENTS THEREOF

Inv. No. 337-TA-1121
(Advisory Proceeding)

Order No. 4: Discovery Statement

On or before March 29, 2022, the parties shall file with the Commission Secretary a joint discovery statement that includes the following:

1. The proposed issues to be litigated (within the framework of the general issues determined by the Commission's notice of investigation), and any stipulations agreed to by all parties.
2. A description of information and evidence that each party intends to submit to prove its own case.
3. A description of specific information and evidence that each party will be seeking from other parties and third persons.
4. A proposed schedule for the prompt exchange among the parties of information and evidence without the use of formal discovery methods.
5. A description of information and evidence each party believes can be obtained only by deposition, interrogatory, subpoena, or request for admission.
6. A proposed procedural schedule¹ that includes submission of prehearing statements

¹ A version in MS Word for Windows of the proposed schedule shall be submitted via e-mail to the administrative law judge's attorney-advisor at Pyong.Yoon@usitc.gov with a copy to Shaw337@usitc.gov by the next business day.

and briefs, and the prehearing conference and hearing.²

So ordered.

DPShaw

David P. Shaw
Administrative Law Judge

Issued: March 23, 2022

² As indicated in Order No. 3, the evidentiary hearing in this proceeding is scheduled for May 18, 2022.