Inv. No. 337-TA-1329

ORDER NO. 22: ORDERING EXPEDITED RESPONSE TO GOOGLE'S MOTION TO STAY THE INVESTIGATION

(July 10, 2023)

Complainant Google LLC (“Google”) moved to stay this Investigation (“Motion”) pending final written decisions in the pending inter partes review (“IPR”) proceedings for the patents-in suit. (Motion Docket No. 1329-018 (July 10, 2023); Mot. at 1.). According to Google’s Motion, the IPR decisions are scheduled to issue on or about May 19, 2024, approximately 10 days before the Target Date in this Investigation. In its Motion, Google states, consistent with Ground Rule 2.2, that it consulted with Respondent Sonos, Inc. (“Sonos”), that Sonos waived the two-day rule for filing, and that Sonos does not oppose the Motion. (Id. at 2.).

By close of business Tuesday, July 11, 2023, Sonos is hereby ordered to file on EDIS a response to Google’s Motion (“Response”). In the Response, Sonos should include clear precedent where the Commission has granted a stay for pending IPR decisions. If there are any such Commission decisions, Sonos should also describe the circumstances. Sonos’ response is limited to under 10 pages.

SO ORDERED.
