ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined to extend the date for determining whether to review the presiding administrative law judge's ("ALJ") initial determination ("ID") (Order No. 43) terminating the investigation as to two respondents based on a consent order stipulation and consent order to January 26, 2024.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On February 3, 2023, the Commission instituted this investigation based on a complaint filed by Samsung Display Co., Ltd. of the Republic of Korea. 88 FR 7463-64 (Feb. 3, 2023). The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1337 based upon the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, or sale within the United States after importation of certain active matrix organic light-emitting diode display panels and modules for mobile devices, and components thereof by reason of the infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 9,818,803; 10,854,683; 7,414,599; and 9,330,593. Id.

The Commission’s notice of investigation, as amended, named numerous respondents, including Apt-Ability LLC d/b/a MobileSentrix of Chantilly, Virginia, and Mobile Defenders, LLC of Caledonia, Michigan (collectively “MobileSentrix”), as well as Mianyang BOE Optoelectronics Co., Ltd (“Mianyang BOE”) of Sichuan, China. The Office of Unfair Import Investigations (“OUII”) was also named as a party in this investigation. Id.

On November 16, 2023, Samsung and MobileSentrix collectively moved to terminate the investigation as to MobileSentrix based on a consent order stipulation, proposed consent order, and a binding settlement term sheet. Mianyang BOE and OUII each filed a response in opposition of the motion.

On December 20, 2023, the ALJ granted the motion. The ID found that the revised consent order stipulation complied with the requirements of 19 CFR 210.21(c)(3) and the revised proposed consent order complied with the requirements of 19 CFR 210.21(c)(4). ID at 2-4. The ID further found no public interest concerns weighing against termination of the investigation as to MobileSentrix. Id. at 4-5. No party filed a petition for review of the subject ID.

The Commission has determined to extend the date for determining whether to review Order No. 43 until January 26, 2024.

The Commission vote for this determination took place on January 19, 2024.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR Part 210).

By order of the Commission.

Secretary to the Commission
