Re: Mendez vs. Apple Inc., (Case No. 18-cv-07550)

Dear Judge Sullivan:

We represent Defendant Apple Inc. ("Apple") in the above-referenced action, and write to request a 30-day extension—to and including November 12, 2018—to answer, move against or otherwise respond to the complaint. Pursuant to the Court's Order dated September 6, 2018 (ECF No. 10), Apple's response to the complaint is currently due on October 11, 2018. Plaintiff's counsel has consented to Apple's request for an extension.

The reason for the request is that the parties, pursuant to a recent meet and confer that was conducted in response to a letter from Apple's counsel, have agreed to share and discuss certain information pertaining to the complaint and would like the necessary time to complete that process.

This is the second request for an extension of this deadline. The extension will not affect any other deadlines.

For these reasons, Apple respectfully requests that the Court extend the time to answer, move against or otherwise respond to the complaint from October 11, 2018 to and including November 12, 2018.

Respectfully,

/s/ Gary D. Friedman
