Clerk: LAR

Dear Judge Elliot:

This will confirm my conversation with your law secretary relative to the above manner. The plaintiff will submit his opposition papers to the defendants' summary judgment on our before June 19th. The defendant will then have until July 7 to submit his reply, with the motion being deemed returnable on July 9th. In addition, it was agreed as and between the parties that service of opposition papers and reply papers will be done by email. Both parties will submit hard copies of their respective papers to chambers via the US Postal service office or some other expedited mail service.

If this game plan is acceptable to the Court, please email me back a copy of this letter signed. We thank the Court and defense counsel for their courtesies and wish everybody well in these difficult times.

Very truly yours,
