Hello James,

Here are the signed forms. I have not had a chance to go over the documents one more time, but really, at this stage, it should only be typos and organizational. I can't justify spending more time on it (to myself, and to the client). I am thus going to assume that you will personally ensure that the documents are ready to go.

In addition, please find my invoice attached. Can you make sure that the folks at Parrot receive it, and send me the appropriate confirmation? I'm assuming that I don't have to send them a hard copy, but please do let me know if they need one.

Regards,

Raff.
