37 C.F.R. § 42.5

IPR2016-00213 (Patent 9,004,288 B2)
IPR2016-00295 (Patent 9,074,440 B2)

On August 30, 2016, we entered an Order Granting-in-Part Motion for Additional Discovery. Case IPR2016-00213, Paper 32; Case IPR2016-00295, Paper 24 (“Discovery Order”). We entered the Discovery Order in the Board’s electronic docketing system as “Board and Parties Only” because it referred to documents that were the subject of motions to seal filed by the parties. See Case IPR2016-00213, Paper 33, 3; Case IPR2016-00295, Paper 25, 3. On August 31, 2016, we entered an Order Granting Motions to Seal, which explained why we had provisionally designated the Discovery Order as “Board and Parties Only” and provided as follows:

If either party believes that any portion of the Discovery Order should be maintained under seal, the party must file, within five business days of the entry of this Order, a motion to seal portions of the Discovery Order. The motion must be supported by a proposed redacted version of the Discovery Order, filed as an exhibit. In the absence of a motion to seal by the specified deadline, the full version of the Discovery Order will become public.

See id. The specified deadline for a motion to seal portions of the Discovery Order has expired without either party filing such a motion. Accordingly, the Discovery Order will be made public in its entirety.

It is hereby:

ORDERED that the Order Granting-in-Part Motion for Additional Discovery (Case IPR2016-00213, Paper 32; Case IPR2016-00295, Paper 24) shall be redesignated in the Board’s electronic docketing system as public.
