PETERS: Thank you. 5 JUDGE CHANG: This is the consolidated oral hearing 6 for IPR2016-01211, 1212, 1216, and 1225 involving U.S. 7 Patents 8,966,144 and 8,504,749 -- I'm sorry, 746. 8 Before we begin, I have a few procedural matters to 9 go over. This oral hearing is open to the public. The 10 transcript of this hearing will be entered into the official 11 file of each of the IPR proceedings as well as in the record 12 of IPR2016-01199, 1200, 1213, and 1214, which involve the 13 same patent and have the same construction issues. The 14 transcript of tomorrow's hearing regarding these cases also 15 will be entered in each of the eight IPRs. 16 So is there any questions as to that matter? 17 Okay. Great. 18 Early this week, we determined to expunge the 19 original Petitioner's demonstrative exhibits found in 20 IPR2016-01225 in view of the Patent Owner's objection, 21 Paper 28. As to Slides 8 and 9 and pursuant to our 22 authorization, the Petitioner refiled its demonstrative 23 exhibit without those slides on September 11, 2017. 24 Does either Petitioner -- either parties have any

Thank you. 4 5 We felt it was efficient to handle it as soon as we 6 can so that we didn't delay this hearing. 7 And please note that the demonstrative exhibits are 8 not evidence, they're merely visual aids as to the oral 9 hearing today. And further note that the image projected on 10 the screen will not be visible to Judge Quinn. So the 11 presenter may present only when standing at the podium so to 12 make sure that Judge Quinn can hear it clearly, remotely. 13 And also for clarity, please identify the specific slide 14 number. I know sometimes during the presentation, I will 15 remind the presenter if we get too far. And consistent with our order, each party has 60 16 17 minutes to present each argument for IPR2016-01211, 1212, and 1216, involving prior art reference Kawaguchi. 18 19 The Petitioner will proceed first to present its case as to the challenged claims.
