APPEARANCES:

ON BEHALF OF THE PETITIONER:

MICHAEL J. SUMMERSGILL, ESQUIRE DONALD R. STEINBERG, ESQUIRE JOSHUA STERN, ESQUIRE RICHARD GOLDENBERG, ESQUIRE WilmerHale 60 State Street Boston, MA 02109

ON BEHALF OF THE PATENT OWNER:

IMAN LORDOOEI, ESQUIRE JAMES M. GLASS, ESQUIRE LANCE YANG, ESQUIRE Quinn Emanuel Trial Attorneys 50 California Street 22nd Floor San Francisco, CA 94111

and Mashood Rassam, Intel Corporation Tony Baca, HP David Fisher, CEO, R2 Semiconductor, Inc.

The above-entitled matter came on for hearing Tuesday, May 1, 2018, commencing at 12:59 p.m., at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, 600 Dulany Street, Alexandria, Virginia.

PROCEEDINGS 1 2 - - - -3 JUDGE BISK: Good afternoon. This is a trial hearing for six 4 cases, IPR2017-00705, 706, 707, 708, 1123 and 1124, between Petitioner, 5 Intel Corporation, and the owner of U.S. Patent 8,233,250, R2 6 Semiconductor, Inc. 7 I have a few administrative matters before we begin. And just 8 as a reminder, if you're using demonstratives, please describe any slides you 9 present by number. This will make the transcript easier to read. 10 And as you know, per order, each party has 90 minutes to 11 present their argument. Because Petitioner has the burden to show 12 unpatentability on the challenged claims and the proposed amended claims, Petitioner will proceed first, followed by Patent Owner. Petitioner may 13 14 reserve rebuttal time, but may only use its time to rebut Patent Owner's 15 arguments. 16 One other thing is that we have looked at both parties' motions 17 to exclude. Preliminarily, we find most of the objections are lacking in 18 merit. 19 Authentication, for example, is a very low bar, and both parties 20 appear to use the motions to exclude to improperly supplement the briefing 21 on the merits. So we don't want to hear any arguments today about these 22 motions to exclude, and although we are not making a definitive ruling 23 today, we are inclined to deny both in their entirety, both sides in all six 24 cases. 25 So the parties are ordered to meet and confer on these motions,

1	and in five days we would like the parties to file a joint notice declaring
2	which, if any, of the objections included in the motions to exclude they
3	would like us to continue to consider.
4	Okay. At this time we'd like Counsel to introduce yourselves
5	and who you have with you, beginning with Petitioner.
6	MR. SUMMERSGILL: Good afternoon, Your Honors,
7	Michael Summersgill on behalf of Intel, the Petitioner. And joining me at
8	counsel table is Mr. Don Steinberg and Josh Stern, and Richard Goldenberg
9	is lead counsel. We also have Mashhood Rassam and Tony Baca of Intel
10	and HP respectively.
11	JUDGE BISK: Okay.
12	MR. SUMMERSGILL: Thank you.
13	JUDGE BISK: Thank you.
14	And Patent Owner?
15	MR. GLASS: Good afternoon, Your Honors, my name is Jim
16	Glass for Patent Owner. With me today at counsel table is Mr. Iman
17	Lordgooei. Mr. Lordgooei will be presenting on behalf of PO today. Also
18	with me is Mr. Lance Yang.
19	Behind me is Mr. David Fisher, who is the CEO and founder of
20	Patent Owner, R2.
21	JUDGE BISK: Okay, thank you very much. Petitioner, would
22	you like to reserve time for rebuttal, and how much?
23	MR. SUMMERSGILL: We would, Your Honor, we'd like to
24	reserve 30 minutes, please.
25	JUDGE BISK: Thirty minutes, okay.

1 MR. SUMMERSGILL: Thank you. 2 JUDGE BISK: All right. I will try to keep time. I'm not very 3 good at the timer itself, so I'm just going to use the clock, and I'll try to 4 remind you as you get close to any -- the end of your time. 5 MR. SUMMERSGILL: And, Your Honor, I was going to 6 argue the petitions and Mr. Steinberg the motions to amend. We were 7 roughly going to try and split our --8 JUDGE BISK: Okay. MR. SUMMERSGILL: -- hour by 30 or I may take 35 9 10 minutes. 11 JUDGE BISK: Okay, I'll try to remind you when you're 12 halfway through the 60 minutes. MR. SUMMERSGILL: Great, thank you. 13 14 JUDGE BISK: Okay, whenever you're ready. MR. SUMMERSGILL: Thank you, Your Honors. As I said, 15 16 I'll be handling the petition arguments and Mr. Steinberg will be handling 17 the motions to amend. 18 We would respectively submit that the evidence across the six petitions demonstrates that each of the claims of the '250 Patent are invalid 19 20 on two separate grounds; one, based on the Shekhawat reference, the 21 Shekhawat primary reference, and second based on the Hibino primary 22 reference. 23 So the '250 Patent claims, as Your Honors know, claim a 24 voltage regulator with voltage spike protection circuitry, also known as 25 snubber circuitry, and there's no dispute that all of those components were
