Case IPR2018-00429 (Patent 9,532,816 B2) Case IPR2018-00521 (Patent 9,532,816 B2)

1	P-R-O-C-E-E-D-I-N-G-S
2	10:00 a.m.
3	JUDGE KINDER: Good morning. Please be seated.
4	Good morning, everyone. I'm Judge Kinder and with me today
5	remotely are Judges Browne and Judge Woods. They're both coming
6	from remote locations.
7	So that being said, if you have demonstratives that you're presenting
8	today, you need to clearly refer to the slide number so they have a chance to
9	flip up your page on your demonstratives. So that's something that's a little
10	abnormal when you're speaking for say slide number, but please do that so
11	we can keep track of it.
12	Today we're calling OrthoPediatrics Corp, Petitioner, versus K2M
13	Inc., Patent Owner, Cases No. IPR 2018-00429 and 00521, both involving
14	U.S. Patent No. 9,532,816. And if we could first get an appearance made
15	for Petitioner and then Patent Owner?
16	MR. BENNETT: Thank you, Your Honor. Good morning. John
17	Bennett on behalf of the Petitioner OrthoPediatrics, and with me are lead
18	counsel Paul Ulrich and backup counsel Christopher Singh.
19	JUDGE KINDER: Okay. Thank you.
20	MR. DOUGLAS: Good morning, Your Honor. My name is
21	Christopher Douglas. I'm lead counsel for K2M with Alston & Bird. With
22	me today are my colleagues Mike Connor and Christopher Ziegler.

Case IPR2018-00429 (Patent 9,532,816 B2) Case IPR2018-00521 (Patent 9,532,816 B2)

JUDGE KINDER: All right. Thank you.	Just to reorient a few things that we put out in the original hearing order, each party and we do appreciate, by the way, everyone's willingness to meet one day later.
Obviously with the snow day yesterday in the Federal Government, we're meeting today on February 21st. So we appreciate to	hat and everyone sticking around. Hopefully it didn't interrupt your p	lans too much for travel

Today each party will have one hour of total argument time to present arguments for both proceedings. Petitioner will open the hearing by presenting arguments including any arguments on its motions that are pending. Thereafter the Patent Owner will argue its opposition to Petitioner's arguments and any of its motions as well. Petitioner may reserve time for rebuttal arguments and may present arguments in opposition to the Patent Owner's motions.

Petitioner obviously bears the ultimate burden to prove that the claims in the inter partes review are unpatentable, so one thing we've been doing lately is allowing the Patent Owner to have a very brief surrebuttal. So we'll go ahead and do that in this proceeding as well. It's just something we've been doing and it's very brief. I mean, it should be no more than a couple minutes.

That being said, Petitioner, how long would you like to reserve for your rebuttal time?

MR. BENNETT: Thank you. Twenty minutes, please.

Case IPR2018-00429 (Patent 9,532,816 B2) Case IPR2018-00521 (Patent 9,532,816 B2)

1	JUDGE KINDER: All right. Mr. Bennett, 20 minutes. Mr.
2	Douglas, how long would you like to reserve for the brief, brief surrebuttal?
3	MR. DOUGLAS: We'll reserve five minutes, Your Honor.
4	JUDGE KINDER: All right. And again, the rebuttals should
5	present no new argument. It should be just in direct response to whatever
6	the other party brought up during that time.
7	So I see we do not have a clock in the hearing in this hearing
8	room. We're in kind of the quaint cozy hearing room, which I actually like.
9	It's more in-person, but you don't have a clock, so your colleague may want
10	to keep track for you if you want warnings during the time. And I do have a
11	master clock, but it just goes from red, yellow to green, so or from green,
12	yellow to red. So if you want to keep your own time, that might be good.
13	And I believe with that we are ready to go, unless my colleagues
14	have any preliminary matters they want to discuss?
15	(No audible response.)
16	JUDGE KINDER: All right.
17	JUDGE BROWNE: I don't have any.
18	JUDGE KINDER: All right. Very good. Mr. Bennett?
19	MR. BENNETT: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please the
20	Board. After the Board instituted inter partes review in these two
21	proceedings the parties have filed almost 300 pages of briefing and yet really
22	all of the disputed issues concerning patentability can be distilled into a
23	single question: Are the Board's claim constructions correct? The answer
