

Electrical Technician, FCA Job #1038761, Auburn Hills, MI

< Back to Search Results

Electrical Technician

Job ID: 1038761

Career Area: Engineering & Design

Job Category: Product Design & Engineering-Technician

Location: Auburn Hills, MI

48326, US

Date Posted: October 21, 2019

Brand: FCA Group

Job Overview

Qualifications

Job Overview

Qualifications

The Electrical Technician will operate electronic data acquisition and machine control equipment for Safety Lab FMVSS 201, 202, 203, 206, 207, 210, 214, 216, 226 and FMH testing. This technician will be involved with bumper barrier, bumper pendulum, air bag test cell, drop tower, and European pedestrian testing, and other special projects. The Electrical Technician will perform annual calibration on all safety lab transducers including complete and accurate record keeping. Maintain all instrumentation equipment by performing preventative maintenance and basic repairs (ability to read electronic schematics and operate electronic test equipment – volt meter, oscilloscope, etc.) and will be responsible for build-up and implement special instrumentation equipment.

Please note: this is a salaried bargaining unit position.

Basic Qualifications:

- High school diploma or GED
- Associate degree in Electronic Engineering Technology (or related field) OR two years of relevant work experience
- Valid driver's license
- Possess good computer skills: MS office Suite (Excel, Word, PowerPoint, etc.)
- Well rounded verbal skills

Preferred Qualifications:

- Technical School or Associates Degree in Electronic Engineering Technology or

- Experience with computer based programmable digital data acquisition system and general instrumentation
- Able to work well with others in a team oriented environment
- Flexible to work overtime, weekends, and/or holidays

Our benefits reflects the FCA commitment to helping you reach your personal and professional goals. In addition to an environment that promotes career development, we offer benefits for a healthy lifestyle and a rewarding future, designed to take care of you and your family, in various stages of life.

As a global company, our employee packages will vary by country, customary norms and the legal entity into which you are hired.

Apply