JUDGE BRADEN: So good afternoon, everyone. We are convened here today for oral arguments in IPR2020-00499 which challenges US patent number 7,386,046; IPR2020-00502 which challenges US patent number 10,032,100; IPR2020-00504 which challenges US patent number 10,223,631; and IPR2020-00505 which challenges US patent number 10,255,545.

I am Judge Braden. Also appearing virtually are my colleagues, Judge Jefferson and Judge Jurgovan.

Before we begin today, we would like to thank you for your flexibility in conducting this hearing via video.

Given that this is a departure from our normal practice, we would like to start by clarifying a few items.

First, our primary concern is your right to be heard. If at any time during the proceeding you encounter technical difficulties that undermine your ability to adequately argue your case, please disconnect from WebEx and try to reconnect into WebEx and let the panel know where you were when you dropped off.

If you cannot reconnect, please dial in using the phone number provided by the PTAB hearing and IT personnel.

Second, for the benefit of the judges, opposing counsel, and court reporter, please identify yourself when you begin your argument and speak clearly into the microphone. Please do not speak when others are speaking.

IPR2020 00499 Patent 8,827,153
IPR2020 00502 Patent 10,032,100
IPR2020 00504 Patent 10,223,631
IPR2020 00505 Patent 10,255,545

1           Also, please identify the specific slide number when referring to
2 demonstratives.

3           Third, and very importantly, please mute yourself when you are not
4 speaking.

5           Finally, we have not received a notice from either party that business
6 confidential information will be discussed or disclosed during the course of 7 this hearing.

8           That being said, please be aware that third parties are virtually
9 attending this hearing.

10           Therefore, if you plan to divulge any business confidential
11 information, you need to inform the panel so we may wall off the third
12 parties for that portion of the hearing. Petitioner's counsel, do you
13 understand?

14           MR. MARINA: Yes, I do.

15           JUDGE BRADEN: Patent owner's counsel, do you understand?

16           MR. MORRIS: This is Robert Morris. Yes.

17           JUDGE BRADEN: Very good. Thank you. Per the hearing order,
18 which is Paper 57 in IPR2020-00499, each party has 90 minutes total time to 19 argue their cases.

20           Petitioner, Samsung Electronics, has the ultimate burden of 21 establishing unpatentability.

22           Therefore, petitioner will open the hearing by presenting its cases as 23 presented in its petitions regarding the alleged unpatentability of the 24 challenged claims.

IPR2020 00499 Patent 8,827,153
IPR2020 00502 Patent 10,032,100
IPR2020 00504 Patent 10,223,631
IPR2020 00505 Patent 10,255,545

1           Petitioner may reserve rebuttal time but no more than half of its total
2 argument time.

3           Thereafter, patent owner, Dynamics, Inc., will respond to petitioner's
4 arguments.

5           Patent owner may reserve surrebuttal time of no more than half its
6 total argument time to respond to petitioner's rebuttal.

7           Otherwise, the parties may use its allocated or allotted time to
8 discuss the cases however they choose.

9           We ask, however, that you make it clear which proceeding,
10 challenges, and claims you are addressing.

11           In order to ensure clarity of the record, following the hearing, please
12 email the court reporter with a list of word spellings unless you have already 13 done so.

14           Lastly, we ask the parties to hold any objections regarding the 15 opposing party's arguments until it is their time to talk.

16           To be clear, we will not take objections during a party's arguments.

17           You must wait until it is your time to talk to note any objections.

18           I will maintain a clock and inform the parties when they have five
19 minutes left for each of their turns to argue.

20           So let's get started with official appearances for both sides. We will
21 start with petitioner.

22           MR. MARINA: Thank you. This is James Marina from Kirkland &
23 Ellis for the Samsung petitioners.

24           Also speaking today will be my partner, Alan Rabinowitz, who's 25 taken off camera but will switch into this seat when it's his time to talk.
