BREYER, J., dissenting

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

MARCUS DANTE REED v. LOUISIANA

ON PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE SUPREME COURT OF LOUISIANA

No. 16-656 Decided February 27, 2017

The petition for a writ of certiorari is denied.

JUSTICE BREYER, dissenting from the denial of certiorari.

Marcus Dante Reed was sentenced to death in Caddo Parish, Louisiana, a county that in recent history has apparently sentenced more people to death per capita than any other county in the United States. See Aviv, Revenge Killing: Race and the Death Penalty in a Louisiana Parish, The New Yorker, July 6 & 13, 2015, p. 34. The arbitrary role that geography plays in the imposition of the death penalty, along with the other serious problems I have previously described, has led me to conclude that the Court should consider the basic question of the death penalty's constitutionality. See Glossip v. Gross, 576 U. S. ____ (2015) (BREYER, J., dissenting). For this reason, I would grant Reed's petition for a writ of certiorari.
