STATEMENT OF INTEREST
OF AMICI CURIAE<sup>1</sup>

The Family Action Council of Tennessee, Inc., is a state-based non-profit organization that seeks to educate citizens and state legislators on public policies that address most closely who we are as human beings.

Constitutional Government Defense Fund is a Tennessee-based non-profit litigation organization whose efforts aim to vindicate the historic constitutional role and jurisdiction of the state to protect innocent human life, the institution of marriage and family, and other community interests served by traditional state police power regulations.

Framing Amici's educational and advocacy work is the anthropology acknowledged and resident in customary and natural law, respectively. Amici seek to urge citizens, policy makers, and judicial bodies in Tennessee to give proper regard to the fundamental and absolute rights of persons at common law. Consequently, when this Court in its decisions forecloses or defeats common law principles and standards by operation of the Court's constitutional rights interpretations, as it did in New York Times v.
