APPLICANT'S MOTION TO EXTEND
APPLICANT'S DEADLINE FOR FILING ITS APPEAL BRIEF

Applicant Notamvis Limited (“Applicant”) by and through its counsel, respectfully moves this Board to grant Applicant a further ninety (90) day extension of its deadline for filing its Appeal Brief in the above-referenced Ex Parte Appeal. Applicant filed its Notice of Appeal on December 11, 2018, and subsequently filed two requests for a ninety (90) day extension of its deadline for filing its Appeal Brief. By order dated May 28, 2019, this Board approved Applicant’s latest request for extension. Accordingly, Applicant is required to file its Appeal Brief on August 24, 2019, pursuant to Trademark Rule 2.142 (b)(1). Applicant requests that this deadline be extended for a further ninety (90) days, such that its Appeal Brief would be due on November 22, 2019.

Applicant respectfully submits that it has good cause for seeking this further extension. Applicant remains in negotiations with Noevir Co., Ltd., the owner of U.S. Registration

No. 4981464, which is the registration that was cited against Applicant's mark as the basis for the Section 2(d) refusal. This Section 2(d) refusal forms the basis for this Ex Parte Appeal. Since the date that Applicant filed its second request for extension of its deadline to file its Appeal Brief, the parties have made progress towards reaching a consent agreement.

Specifically, Applicant believes that the parties have reached agreement in principle regarding the primary terms of a consent agreement. Applicant's counsel, the undersigned, has sent counsel for Noevir Co., Ltd., a draft Letter of Consent on July 31, 2019. Counsel for Noevir Co., Ltd. emailed the undersigned a preliminary response on August 1, 2019, stating that he would review the Letter of Consent with his client. Applicant is now waiting for Noevir Co., Ltd.'s comments regarding the draft Letter of Consent. Applicant intends to use this ninety (90) day period to attempt to finalize the terms of the Letter of Consent between Applicant and Noevir Co., Ltd.

In conclusion, Applicant respectfully requests that this Motion for a further ninety (90) day extension of Applicant's deadline for filing its Appeal Brief be granted.

Dated at Burlington, Vermont this 22nd day of August, 2019.

Respectfully submitted,
