Scholastic v. Mishkoff

Preliminary Response to Motion to Extend Deadlines

Respondent opposes Petitioner's motion to extend the deadlines in these proceedings.

Respondent finds himself out of town without access to his records and his resources, which leaves him unable to create a full and proper response at this time. Respondent will submit a full response over the weekend, so the sole purpose of this preliminary response is to ask the TTAB not to rule on Petitioner's motion until Respondent has time to fully respond.

Respondent recognizes that this preliminary response is not in the correct format – which again, is due to the fact that Respondent is sitting in a hotel room, preparing to go to a client's office. However, despite the lack of correct formatting, Respondent hopes that the TTAB will honor Respondent's request and refrain from ruling on Petitioner's motion until next week, which will give Respondent time to fully respond to Petitioner's motion. Respondent would like to thank the TTAB in advance for its indulgence.

Please note that Respondent is not expecting any kind of formal reply to this request.

Respondent will send a copy of this document to Petitioner's attorney Catherine Farrelly via email.
