Civil Action No. 4:22-CV-00760

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT

Plaintiff AT&T Mobility LLC (“AT&T”) files this Complaint against Defendant T-Mobile USA Inc. (“T-Mobile”) and states as follows:

SUMMARY

1. Competition in the telecommunications industry is fierce, particularly among companies that offer wireless service plans to keep us connected to the Internet and each other.

2. Wireless companies like AT&T and T-Mobile compete for wireless customers from a base of consumers that rightfully demands high-quality service at low prices. As a result, wireless carriers invest aggressively in their networks while offering an array of service plans, promotions, and discounts designed to appeal to a wide variety of consumers. They also advertise their services, often comparing their products and prices with those of their competitors.

3. Competition on the merits benefits consumers, and since the dawn of the wireless age, AT&T has successfully built a base of wireless customers that now numbers over 200 million wireless connections. But what wireless carriers cannot do is lie to consumers about a competitor's services. False statements that deceive the public to the detriment of a competitor violate federal law.

4. Unfortunately, that is exactly what T-Mobile is doing in a new advertising campaign that is intentionally designed to deceive senior citizens.

5. T-Mobile's new advertising campaign can be found at T-Mobile's new website, "BannedSeniors.com," where T-Mobile claims:

Verizon and AT&T Ban Senior Discounts

92% of seniors in the U.S. can't get a wireless discount from Verizon or AT&T because they don't live in Florida. 92%!! The Un-carrier is here to help.

6. The website's headline boldly proclaims, without any factual support, that AT&T bans senior discounts.

7. T-Mobile further claims that "92% of seniors in the U.S. can't get a wireless discount" from AT&T because they "don't live in Florida," and that the only ways for customers aged 55 or older to get a discounted wireless plan are to (1) move to Florida, (2) obtain a Florida address, or (3) switch to T-Mobile.

8. Each one of these claims is literally false.

9. AT&T does not "ban" senior discounts in any way, shape, or form.

10. To the contrary, AT&T offers discounts to senior citizens on their wireless service. For example, through AARP, AT&T offers millions of seniors across every state discounts on monthly service charges and activation fees.

11. T-Mobile's false statements about AT&T's services are designed to deceive senior citizens. Notwithstanding T-Mobile's false statements otherwise, AT&T offers discounts to senior citizens in all states. They do not have to live in Florida. They do not have to move to Florida. And they do not have to switch to T-Mobile in order to obtain discounts.

12. AT&T files this action for damages and injunctive relief to stop T-Mobile's false advertising.

PARTIES

13. Plaintiff AT&T Mobility LLC is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Atlanta, Georgia.

14. Defendant T-Mobile USA Inc. is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Bellevue, Washington. T-Mobile is registered to do business in the State of Texas and can be served with process through its registered agent, Corporation Service Company, 211 East 7th Street, Suite 620, Austin, Texas 78701.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

15. This Court has subject-matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because this case arises under the laws of the United States—specifically, the Lanham Act.

16. This Court has personal jurisdiction over T-Mobile because it is registered to do business in the State of Texas and does business in the State of Texas.

17. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to AT&T's claims occurred in this district. T-Mobile's nationwide marketing and advertising—including the false and misleading advertisements that are the subject of AT&T's claims—are intended to reach and likely have reached consumers in this district. Additionally, according to its website, T-Mobile operates numerous stores at various locations throughout this district, which stand to gain—or are gaining—from T-Mobile's unlawful conduct.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

18. AT&T and T-Mobile are competitors in the wireless communication industry.

19. On August 30, 2022, T-Mobile issued a press release launching its new advertising campaign directed at senior citizens that disparages AT&T through false advertising.

20. To entice senior citizens to switch to T-Mobile, T-Mobile created the website “BannedSeniors.com.” On this website, T-Mobile claims that “Verizon and AT&T Ban Senior Discounts” and that “92% of seniors in the U.S. can't get a wireless discount from Verizon or AT&T because they don't live in Florida.”

21. These claims are literally false. AT&T has not “banned” seniors from getting discounted wireless service outside the state of Florida. To the contrary, AT&T offers discount programs that are available in every state to customers over the age of 55. For instance, AT&T offers and markets a discount program in partnership with the AARP:
