The screenshot shows a news article on the WJLA website. The article title is "moon. Tuesday's full moon will be the closest to perigee all year making it the biggest and brightest moon of 2020". The article includes two side-by-side images of the moon. The left image is labeled "2006-02-13" and "405,428 km". The right image is labeled "2006-09-08" and "357,210 km". Below the images is a diagram of the moon's elliptical orbit around Earth, showing the "Perigee (225,804 miles)" and "Apogee (251,968 miles)" points. The article also features a social media sharing section with Facebook, Twitter, and Email icons. To the right of the article is a sidebar with a "MYTH" section stating "Medication cures depression" and a "FACT" section stating "Even after trying 2 medications, 1 in 3 patients will continue to suffer symptoms of depression". Below this is a "TRENDING" section with two articles: "Florida artist creates stunning Disney sidewalk art to brighten neighborhood" and "Los Angeles study suggests virus much more widespread".

Apogee	Perigee
