JOINT MOTION TO EXTEND THE STAY OF THE ISSUANCE OF THE MANDATE

As the Court is aware, this case involves Florida’s social media law that, like a pending appeal in the Fifth Circuit involving a similar law from Texas, presents “issues of great importance that will plainly merit [Supreme Court] review.” NetChoice v. Paxton, 142 S. Ct. 1715, 1715-16 (2022) (Alito, J., dissenting from grant of application to vacate stay); see also id. at 1715 (granting application). The parties share the view that further review in the Supreme Court is warranted. Given that aim, the parties jointly sought a stay of the issuance of the mandate, which this Court granted on June 22, 2022. Under this Court’s order, the stay remains in force “to and including August 22, 2022” or until the “final disposition of the case” once certiorari is sought.

Since then, Florida sought and received a 30-day extension of time in which to file a petition for certiorari. Florida’s petition is now due on September 21, 2022.

Accordingly, and for the same reasons that the Court initially stayed the issuance of the mandate, the parties request that this Court extend the stay “to and including September 21, 2022” or until the “final disposition of the case” once certiorari is sought.

Respectfully submitted,
