Argument 7

I. Buckhannon sought to limit statutory fee awards to parties that prevailed in litigation rather than achieving extra-litigation results 8

II. Microsoft prevailed in the litigation because Uniloc dismissed its claim with prejudice and can never assert that claim again 10

A. A voluntary dismissal with prejudice is a judicially enforceable judgment and thus bears the hallmarks of "judicial imprimatur" 10

B. Microsoft is the "prevailing party" because it achieved its desired result within the litigation 12

C. This and other courts have recognized that voluntary dismissals may confer "prevailing party" status on the defendant 14
