Introduction	1
Interest of Amici Curiae	4
Argument.....	6
I. The TCA preserved long-established state and local government authority over tobacco product sales within their borders.....	6
A. The TCA expressly preserves local government authority over tobacco retail sales.....	7
B. The TCA only preempted local regulations that would force manufacturers to change their processes for each local jurisdiction.	10
II. Los Angeles County’s restriction on the sale of flavored tobacco products is not a “product standard” preempted by the TCA.	13
A. The Ordinance is not a “product standard” because it does not require manufacturers to create tobacco products in any particular way.	13
B. The industry’s contrary arguments are wrong.....	15
C. No circuit court has ever concluded that a ban on the sale of flavored tobacco products is a “product standard.”.....	20
III. Los Angeles County’s Ordinance is not impliedly preempted because local sales bans on flavored tobacco products do not pose an obstacle to the FDA’s regulatory authority.	21
A. There is a “high threshold” for obstacle preemption especially where Congress has explicitly preserved state authority.....	22

B. The Ordinance is not impliedly preempted by the FDA’s inaction on menthol. 23

C. The industry’s implied preemption argument would have grave consequences for local public health laws that often serve as policy laboratories..... 25
