

1 18, 2021 exceeds the authority of his office by the Washington Constitution statute, and,
2 independently, violates the rights guaranteed to the state workers by the Constitution of the 3 United States of America and other applicable law.

4 2. Other similarly situated individuals have had their attempts to obtain a hearing on the 5 merits in State Court stymied by the Governor's office, including the willful disobedience of a 6 State Court's Order for his Chief of Staff to sit for deposition.

7 3. Given the State's conduct in State Court, these Plaintiffs reluctantly come to his Court 8 as a last resort for legal relief and explicitly bring only Federal Causes of Action to avoid the 9 State's inevitable and ongoing attempts to delay these emergent issues.
