COMMENT(S)/REMARK(S)
Trademark was established as a novelty item to be sold and to satire Nikki Haley who lowered the Confederate Battle Flag without consent of the South Carolina public. We view her move as Communistic and repulsive to Confederate Descendants. I am exerting my 1st Amendment rights, public persons are not immune to political criticism or characterizations in movies, shows, cartoons or my t-shirt design. I believe the current attorney who suspended my trademark is acting as a political partisan and I am appealing for another trade mark attorney to examine the issue. As a native of South Carolina, I have a right to criticize my state government for taking unilateral actions against the Citizens and refusing them the right to vote on a important historic and cultural action. My trademark does not infringe on the state but simply on the administration of Nikki Haley.
