Search Results - No Conflicting Marks Found

The trademark examining attorney has searched the USPTO database of registered and pending marks and has found no conflicting marks that would bar registration under Trademark Act Section 2(d). 15 U.S.C. §1052(d); TMEP §704.02.

Section 2(e)(4) – Primarily Merely a Surname Refusal

Registration is refused because the applied-for mark is primarily merely a surname. Trademark Act Section 2(e)(4), 15 U.S.C. §1052(e)(4); see TMEP §1211.

An applicant’s mark is primarily merely a surname if the surname, when viewed in connection with the applicant’s recited goods and/or services, “is the primary significance of the mark as a whole to the purchasing public.” Earnhardt v. Kerry Earnhardt, Inc., 864 F.3d 1374, 1377, 123 USPQ2d 1411, 1413 (Fed. Cir. 2017) (quoting In re Hutchinson Tech. Inc., 852 F.2d 552, 554, 7 USPQ2d 1490, 1492 (Fed. Cir. 1988)); TMEP §1211.01.

The following five inquiries are often used to determine the public’s perception of a term’s primary significance:

- (1) Whether the surname is rare;
- (2) Whether anyone connected with applicant uses the term as a surname;
- (3) Whether the term has any recognized meaning other than as a surname;
- (4) Whether the term has the structure and pronunciation of a surname; and
- (5) Whether the term is sufficiently stylized to remove its primary significance from that of a surname.

In re Colors in Optics, Ltd., 2020 USPQ2d 53784, at *1-2 (TTAB 2020) (citing In re Benthin Mgmt. GmbH, 37 USPQ2d 1332, 1333-34 (TTAB 1995) for the Benthin inquiries/factors); TMEP §1211.01; see also In re Etablissements Darty et Fils, 759 F.2d 15, 16-18, 225 USPQ 652, 653 (Fed. Cir. 1985).

These inquiries or factors are not exclusive, and any of these circumstances – singly or in combination – and any other relevant circumstances may be considered when making this determination. In re tapio GmbH, 2020 USPQ2d 11387, at *9 (TTAB 2020) (citing In re Eximius Coffee, LLC, 120 USPQ2d 1276, 1277-78 (TTAB 2016)); TMEP §1211.01. For example, when the applied-for mark is not stylized, it is unnecessary to consider the fifth inquiry. In re Yeley, 85 USPQ2d 1150, 1151 (TTAB 2007); TMEP §1211.01.

Here, the following factors are most relevant, and will be discussed in turn: whether the surname is rare, whether anyone connected with applicant uses the term as a surname, and whether the term has any recognized meaning other than as a surname.

Applicant has applied to register the mark GALLOWAY LUXURY REALTY ELITE GROUP for use in connection with “real estate company buying, selling, residential and commercial and property management” in Class 036.

Surname Significance

Please see the attached evidence from Lexis+®, establishing the surname significance of "GALLOWAY". This evidence shows the applied-for mark appearing 83,644 times as a surname in the Lexis+® surname database, which is a weekly updated directory of cell phone and other phone numbers (such as voice over IP) from various data providers.

Surname is Common

Based on the above evidence and the additional attached evidence from Forebears demonstrating the applied-for mark appearing frequently as a surname, "GALLOWAY" is a common surname. This weighs in favor of a Section 2(e)(4) refusal because it establishes that the consuming public is frequently exposed to "GALLOWAY" as a surname and therefore it is unlikely to stand out to consumers as identifying a particular source of services.

Surname Association with Applicant

A term that is the surname of an individual applicant or that of an officer, founder, owner, or principal of applicant's business is probative evidence of the term's surname significance. TMEP §1211.02(b)(iv); see, e.g., In re Etablissements Darty et Fils, 759 F.2d 15, 16, 225 USPQ 652, 653 (Fed. Cir. 1985) (holding DARTY primarily merely a surname where "Darty" was the surname of applicant's corporate president); In re Eximius Coffee, LLC, 120 USPQ2d 1276, 1278-80 (TTAB 2016) (holding ALDECOA primarily merely a surname where ALDECOA was the surname of the founder and individuals continuously involved in the business); In re Integrated Embedded, 120 USPQ2d 1504, 1507 (TTAB 2016) (holding BARR GROUP primarily merely a surname where BARR was the surname of the co-founder and applicant's corporate officer and GROUP was found "incapable of lending source-identifying significance to the mark"); Miller v. Miller, 105 USPQ2d 1615, 1620, 1622-23 (TTAB 2013) (holding MILLER LAW GROUP primarily merely a surname where "Miller" was the surname of the applicant and the term "law group" was found generic).

In this case, applicant is named "Bonita Galloway". This weighs in favor of a Section 2(e)(4) refusal because consumers are likely to perceive the word "GALLOWAY" in the mark as referring to Bonita Galloway, purveyor of the identified services.

Non-Surname Significance

The existence of other non-surname meanings of a mark does not preclude the mark from being held primarily merely a surname. Miller v. Miller, 105 USPQ2d 1615, 1620-21 (TTAB 2013); see In re Harris-Intertype Corp., 518 F.2d 629, 631, 186 USPQ2d 238, 239 (C.C.P.A. 1975); In re Hamilton Pharms. Ltd., 27 USPQ2d 1939, 1942 (TTAB 1993). The issue is not whether a mark that has surname significance might also have a non-surname significance, but whether, in the context of an applicant's goods or services, the non-surname significance is the mark's primary significance to the purchasing public. Miller v. Miller, 105 USPQ2d at 1621; see In re Harris-Intertype Corp., 518 F.2d at 631, 186 USPQ2d at 239; In re Hamilton Pharms. Ltd., 27 USPQ2d at 1942.

In this case, the word "GALLOWAY" does appear to refer to both a particular location in Scotland and a specific breed of cattle native to that location in Scotland. See the attached evidence from Merriam-Webster.com and the American Heritage Dictionary. However, a term's primary significance as a surname may not be lessened even if it also has some minor significance as a geographical term. See In re Hamilton Pharm. Ltd., 27 USPQ2d 1939, 1943 (TTAB 1993); In re Picone, 221 USPQ 93, 95 (TTAB 1984); TMEP §1211.01(a)(iii).

The existence of these other meanings, both of which refer back to a particular place in Scotland, does not diminish the surname significance of "GALLOWAY" in connection with the identified real estate services because applicant has applied for registration for services offered in the United States and because real estate services are concerned with real property and not with chattels such as cattle. Therefore, the relatively minor non-surname meanings of "GALLOWAY" do not detract from the primary significance of "GALLOWAY", which is that of a surname.

Additional Wording in the Mark

If the mark combines a surname with an additional term, the mark will be evaluated to determine if the primary significance of the mark as a whole in connection with applicant's goods and/or services is still that of a surname. See Earnhardt v. Kerry Earnhardt, Inc., 864 F.3d 1374, 1377, 123 USPQ2d 1411, 1413 (Fed. Cir. 2017); TMEP §1211.01(b). A key element in this determination is the relative distinctiveness of the additional term in the mark. Earnhardt v. Kerry Earnhardt, Inc., 864 F.3d at 1377, 123 USPQ2d at 1413 (citing In re Hutchinson Tech. Inc., 852 F.2d 552, 554-55, 7 USPQ2d 1490, 1492 (Fed. Cir. 1988)); TMEP §1211.01(b)(vi).

A nondistinctive term is typically accorded less weight and is not likely to detract from the primary surname significance of the mark. See In re Six Continents Ltd., 2022 USPQ2d 135, at *20 (TTAB 2022); Azeka Bldg. Corp. v. Azeka, 122 USPQ2d 1477, 1481 n.9, 1482 (TTAB 2017) (construing In re Hutchinson Tech. Inc., 852 F.2d at 554, 7 USPQ2d at 1492-93); TMEP §1211.01(b)(vi). Although individual components of a mark may be weighed to determine the mark's overall commercial impression, the combination of the individual parts must be viewed as a whole to determine if the additional term alters the primary significance of the mark to the purchasing public. Earnhardt v. Kerry Earnhardt, Inc., 864 F.3d at 1378-79, 123 USPQ2d at 1414 (quoting In re Oppedahl & Larson LLP, 373 F.3d 1171, 1174-75, 71 USPQ2d 1370, 1372 (Fed. Cir. 2004)).

In this case, the addition of "LUXURY REALTY ELITE GROUP" does not alter the primary significance of the mark as a whole from that of a surname because the wording is descriptive and laudatory and therefore unlikely to make a significant impression upon consumers as indicating a particular source of services.

The wording "LUXURY REALTY" is merely descriptive of an ingredient, quality, characteristic, function, feature, purpose, or use of applicant's goods and/or services. See 15 U.S.C. §§1052(e)(1), 1056(a); DuoProSS Meditech Corp. v. Inviro Med. Devices, Ltd., 695 F.3d 1247, 1251, 103 USPQ2d 1753, 1755 (Fed. Cir. 2012); TMEP §§1213, 1213.03(a).

The attached evidence from International Finance, Miami Today, San Antonio Business Journal, Sun West Custom Homes, Chicago Luxury Realty, and Florida Luxury Realty, shows this wording is commonly used in connection with similar goods and/or services to refer to brokering high-end, expensive, luxurious real estate listings. Thus, the wording merely describes applicant's services because it immediately conveys to consumers that applicant's real estate services involve high-end or expensive real property.

Similarly, the wording "ELITE GROUP" is merely laudatory and descriptive of the alleged merit of applicant's services. See 15 U.S.C. §§1052(e)(1), 1056(a); DuoProSS Meditech Corp. v. Inviro Med. Devices, Ltd., 695 F.3d 1247, 1256, 103 USPQ2d 1753, 1759 (Fed. Cir. 2012); TMEP §1209.03(k).

"Self-laudatory or puffing marks are regarded as a condensed form of describing the character or quality of the goods [or services]." DuoProSS Meditech Corp. v. Inviro Med. Devices, Ltd., 695 F.3d at 1256, 103 USPQ2d at 1759 (quoting In re The Boston Beer Co., 198 F.3d 1370, 1373, 53 USPQ2d 1056, 1058 (Fed. Cir. 1999)). Thus, wording such as "ultimate," "best," "greatest," and the like are generally considered laudatory and descriptive of an alleged superior quality of the goods and/or services. See In re Nett Designs, Inc., 236 F.3d 1339, 1342, 57 USPQ2d 1564, 1566 (Fed. Cir. 2001); In re The Boston Beer Co., 198 F.3d at 1373-74, 53 USPQ2d at 1058-59; TMEP §1209.03(k).

The attached evidence from Merriam-Webster.com and the American Heritage Dictionary shows the word "ELITE" means superior in quality or skill, and the word "GROUP" means an assembly of two or more persons. Therefore, this wording is merely laudatory of the supposed superior quality of applicant's services because it touts the skill of applicant's team of real estate agents. Furthermore, the attached evidence from Remax, Redfin, Realty World, and Carolina One Real Estate demonstrates it is common for real estate brokers to use the word "ELITE" as puffery to describe the alleged merit of their real estate services.

The laudatory nature of the wording in the applied-for mark is confirmed by applicant's LinkedIn® page, which indicates that the "Elite Advisors provide you with top notch [sic] services and expertise with new cutting edge technology." See the attached evidence. This laudatory and descriptive wording therefore is unlikely to alter the primary significance of the mark as a whole from that of a surname because it is unlikely to be perceived by consumers as source-identifying material.

Ultimately, based on the inquiries relevant herein, when purchasers encounter applicant's services using the mark GALLOWAY LUXURY REALTY ELITE GROUP, they will immediately understand the primary significance of the mark as that of a surname. Therefore, registration is refused pursuant to Section 2(e)(4) of the Trademark Act.

Advisory regarding Amendment to the Supplemental Register After Filing an Amendment to Allege Use to Overcome Refusal

Although an amendment to the Supplemental Register would be an appropriate response to this refusal(s) in an application based on Trademark Act Section 1(a) or 44, such a response is not appropriate in the present case. The instant application was filed under Section 1(b) and is not eligible for registration on the Supplemental Register until an acceptable amendment to allege use meeting the requirements of 37 C.F.R. §2.76 has been timely filed. 37 C.F.R. §2.47(d); TMEP §§816.02, 1102.03.

If applicant files an acceptable allegation of use and also amends to the Supplemental Register, the application effective filing date will be the date applicant met the minimum filing requirements under 37 C.F.R. §2.76(c) for an amendment to allege use. TMEP §§816.02, 1102.03; see 37 C.F.R. §2.75(b). In addition, the undersigned trademark examining attorney will conduct a new search of the USPTO records for conflicting marks based on the later application filing date. TMEP §§206.01, 1102.03.

Although registration on the Supplemental Register does not afford all the benefits of registration on the Principal Register, it does provide the following advantages to the registrant:

- (1) Use of the registration symbol ® with the registered mark in connection with the designated goods and/or services, which provides public notice of the registration and potentially deters third parties from using confusingly similar marks.
- (2) Inclusion of the registered mark in the USPTO's database of registered and pending marks, which will (a) make it easier for third parties to find it in trademark search reports, (b) provide public notice of the registration, and thus (c) potentially deter third parties from using confusingly similar marks.
- (3) Use of the registration by a USPTO trademark examining attorney as a bar to registering confusingly similar marks in applications filed by third parties.
- (4) Use of the registration as a basis to bring suit for trademark infringement in federal court, which, although more costly than state court, means judges with more trademark experience, often faster adjudications, and the opportunity to seek an injunction, actual damages, and attorneys' fees and costs.

(5) Use of the registration as a filing basis for a trademark application for registration in certain foreign countries, in accordance with international treaties.

See 15 U.S.C. §§1052(d), 1091, 1094; J. Thomas McCarthy, McCarthy on Trademarks & Unfair Competition §§19:33, 19:37 (rev. 4th ed. Supp. 2017).

Advisory regarding Disclaimer of Generic Wording if Amending to the Supplemental Register

Applicant is advised that, if an acceptable allegation of use and an amendment to the Supplemental Register are filed, applicant will be required to disclaim "LUXURY REALTY" and "GROUP" because such wording appears to be generic in the context of applicant's services. See 15 U.S.C. §1056(a); In re Wella Corp., 565 F.2d 143, 144, 196 USPQ 7, 8 (C.C.P.A. 1977); In re Creative Goldsmiths of Wash., Inc., 229 USPQ 766, 768 (TTAB 1986); TMEP §1213.03(b).

Applicant may submit a disclaimer in the following format:

No claim is made to the exclusive right to use "LUXURY REALTY" and "GROUP" apart from the mark as shown.

TMEP §1213.08(a)(i).

For an overview of disclaimers and instructions on how to provide one using the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS), see the Disclaimer webpage.

Response Options to Refusals

Although applicant's mark has been refused registration, applicant may respond to the refusal(s) by submitting evidence and arguments in support of registration. However, if applicant responds to the refusal(s), applicant must also respond to the requirement(s) set forth below.

Identification of Services – Amendment Required

Applicant must clarify the wording "property management" and "real estate company" in the identification of goods and/or services in International Class(es) 036 because it is indefinite and too broad. See 37 C.F.R. §2.32(a)(6); TMEP §§1402.01, 1402.03. This wording is indefinite because it does not make clear the nature of the services. Further, this wording could identify goods and/or services in more than one international class. For example, regarding the wording "property management", "real estate services, namely, management of residential housing and commercial properties for others" is in International Class 036 and "intellectual property management" is in International Class 045.

Furthermore, the wording "buying, selling, residential and commercial" in the identification of services is indefinite and must be clarified because it does not make clear the nature of the services. See 37 C.F.R. §2.32(a)(6); TMEP §1402.01. Applicant must amend this wording to specify the common commercial or generic name of the services. See TMEP §1402.01. If the services have no common commercial or generic name, applicant must describe or explain the nature of the services using clear and succinct language. See id.

Applicant may substitute the following wording, if accurate:

"real estate brokerage; real estate services, namely, management of residential housing and commercial properties for others" in International Class 036; and

"Intellectual property management" in International Class 045.

Applicant may amend the identification to clarify or limit the goods and/or services, but not to broaden or expand the goods and/or services beyond those in the original application or as acceptably amended. See 37 C.F.R. §2.71(a); TMEP §1402.06. Generally, any deleted goods and/or services may not later be reinserted. See TMEP §1402.07(e).

For assistance with identifying and classifying goods and services in trademark applications, please see the USPTO's online searchable U.S. Acceptable Identification of Goods and Services Manual. See TMEP §1402.04.

Multiple Class Application Requirements for a Section 1(b) Application

The application identifies goods and/or services in more than one international class; therefore, applicant must satisfy all the requirements below for each international class based on Trademark Act Section 1(b):

- (1) List the goods and/or services by their international class number in consecutive numerical order, starting with the lowest numbered class.
- (2) Submit a filing fee for each international class not covered by the fee(s) already paid (view the USPTO's current fee schedule). The application identifies goods and/or services that are classified in at least 2 classes; however, applicant submitted a fee(s) sufficient for only 1 class(es). Applicant must either submit the filing fees for the classes not covered by the submitted fees or restrict the application to the number of classes covered by the fees already paid.

See 37 C.F.R. §2.86(a); TMEP §§1403.01, 1403.02(c).

For an overview of the requirements for a Section 1(b) multiple-class application and how to satisfy the requirements online using the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS) form, see the Multiple-class Application webpage.

Suggestion to be Represented by U.S.-Licensed Counsel

Because of the legal technicalities and strict deadlines of the trademark application process, applicant is encouraged to hire a private attorney who specializes in trademark matters to assist in this process. The assigned trademark examining attorney can provide only limited assistance explaining the content of an Office action and the application process. USPTO staff cannot provide legal advice or statements about an applicant's legal rights. TMEP §§705.02, 709.06. See Hiring a U.S.-licensed trademark attorney for more information.

Response guidelines. For this application to proceed, applicant must explicitly address each refusal and/or requirement in this Office action. For a refusal, applicant may provide written arguments and evidence against the refusal, and may have other response options if specified above. For a requirement, applicant should set forth the changes or statements. Please see “Responding to Office Actions” and the informational video “Response to Office Action” for more information and tips on responding.

Please call or email the assigned trademark examining attorney with questions about this Office action. Although an examining attorney cannot provide legal advice, the examining attorney can provide additional explanation about the refusal(s) and/or requirement(s) in this Office action. See TMEP §§705.02, 709.06.

The USPTO does not accept emails as responses to Office actions; however, emails can be used for informal communications and are included in the application record. See 37 C.F.R. §§2.62(c), 2.191; TMEP §§304.01-.02, 709.04-.05.

Changes in currency exchange rates have some effect on the slowdown in sales of Miami's luxury residential real estate, but that's just one part of the larger picture, leading South Florida brokers say.

EWM Realty International two years ago reported 42% of homes in the $1 million-plus bracket sold to buyers from outside the US, says EWM Realty International President Ron Shuffield. Today, figures show, foreign buyers make up only 36% of that market.

Due to home value changes and a 64.7% hike in the exchange rate, EWM reports, an Argentine wishing to buy a $1.1 million home in Miami would pay 81.2% more in actual costs now than a year ago. A Venezuelan would pay 74.3% more. Many other international buyers would face less dramatic but still hefty increases.

"We may have the largest pent-up demand we've ever had," Mr. Shuffield said. "The reason is that while foreign buyers like to bring their assets here as a hedge against changes in currency valuation at home, these buyers have finally said the higher prices don't meet their expectations. So a lot are standing on the sidelines waiting for prices to fall back to what they believe are more appropriate prices."

Jay Parker, CEO of Douglas Elliman's Florida Brokerage, said he believes that currency issues have played a significant role in the market slowdown, "but I also believe that some countries that have been most severely affected have started to return to a more stable situation."

"Miami has evolved from a boom-bust market to one that has tremendous strength and is able to withstand that type of pattern," Mr. Parker said. "Cycles are healthy. This slowdown will purge some of the low-hanging fruit and force sellers to become a bit more realistic with pricing or take their properties off the market and wait for prices to increase."

Currency issues are just one factor among many affecting the cyclical pattern of real estate markets, said Carlos Gutierrez, current residential president of the Miami Realtors Association, "and like the stock market, it can change overnight."

In general, said Mr. Gutierrez, who heads the Gutierrez Group at Keller Williams' Miami Beach branch, "buyers from Europe or South America view the US as a market where they would rather move their assets. So it depends on the situation of the buyer as much as the currency."

Recent research released by the Miami Realtors Association shows a change in the profile of international users visiting the association's search portal - miamire.com.

The top 10 countries of origin in May 2015 were, in descending order, Brazil, Colombia, Canada, Venezuela, Argentina, India, Russia, Philippines, the UK and France.

In May of this year, they were Colombia, Venezuela, Argentina, Brazil, Spain, India, Canada, Israel, Philippines and Mexico.

But this broader interest in Miami real estate seems to have at least as much to do with safety concerns as with currency exchange rates.

Internet search patterns take a while to translate into sales, Mr. Shuffield said, but "we are definitely seeing more interest from India and other Asian countries. This is not showing up in sales yet, but direct flights from Turkey brought immediate results. The same thing happened a few years ago with Germany, when they realized that they can now utilize their properties here more quickly.

"When the French had a change in government and raised taxes," he said, "we saw an immediate response to that. Now, with global terrorism, the US is very appealing for the safety of their families as well."

"As unfortunate as worldwide issues such as terrorism and political instability have been," Mr. Parker said, "they continue to put the US in an attractive light. At the same time Miami is starting to look more like a major metropolitan area, but with comparatively lower prices.

"On the flip side," he said, "we haven't seen any real flight from this market to capitalize on the exchange rate. It leads me to believe that not only price and value but the concept of safety and security – and ultimately our perceived discount as compared with other metro markets – are what attracts foreign buyers.

"Currencies will even out, as they always do. We are moving expensive real estate in new developments, and that's a telltale sign about the desirability of our market," said Mr. Parker.

Sotheby's to open Middle East luxury realty brokerage in Qatar

© June 24, 2019

To be based in Doha, the new branch will be owned by the Alfaridan Group, which is a luxury real estate conglomerate

Sotheby's, a British-founded American multinational corporation is expanding in the Middle East by establishing a new branch in Doha, Qatar, Inman reported. The new branch is owned by Alfaridan Group, a premium lifestyle conglomerate renowned for its work with luxury products and services in Qatar.

When asked for the reason behind the expansion, Philip White, president, and CEO of Sotheby's International Realty told Inman, "Qatar's high-income economy and global real estate interest is appealing to the Sotheby's International Realty brand."

Seran Gheorghie, a real estate veteran with over 13 years of experience in the region will take up the role of general manager of the new Qatari brokerage. According to him, the Qatari market has high-end luxury properties which attract buyers from all around the globe.

"We pride ourselves in offering the highest level of support and advice to our clients before, during and after the transaction. Aligning our company with the Sotheby's International Realty brand will further provide our clients with unparalleled marketing, global reach, and exposure," the new general manager of Qatar Sotheby's International Realty told Inman.

According to Sotheby's International Realty, currently, 22,700 sales associates are working for the company at nearly 1,000 offices in 72 countries and territories. According to reports, the company generated a record $11.2 billion in sales last year.

When asked for the reason behind the expansion, Philip White, president, and CEO of Sotheby's International Realty told Inman, "Qatar's high-income economy and global real estate interest is appealing to the Sotheby's International Realty brand."

Since the 2022 FIFA World Cup football tournament is scheduled to take place in Qatar and Sotheby's decision to establish itself in the Middle East, especially Qatar, might be influenced by it.

The new branch launch also comes after Sotheby's Canadian brokerage division was recently acquired by a subsidiary of Peerage Capital.

In February, Reuters reported that residential prices in Qatar are down about 10 per cent, office prices also saw a similar decline and rents are down 20 per cent since July 2017.

But with the World Cup inching closer, experts predict long term projects to flood Qatar's real estate market despite the decline in prices.

Also, according to Realty.com, Qatar recently passed a new law which permits greater foreign ownership of its real estate sector in a bid to draw more investment.

Founded in 1976, Sotheby's International Realty is a subsidiary of Realogy Holdings Corp, a global leader in real estate franchising, real estate brokerage, relocation and settlement services.

United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO)

USPTO OFFICIAL NOTICE

Office Action (Official Letter) has issued on April 3, 2023 for
U.S. Trademark Application Serial No. 97457430

A USPTO examining attorney has reviewed your trademark application and issued an Office action. You must respond to this Office action to avoid your application abandoning. Follow the steps below.

- (1) Read the Office action. This email is NOT the Office action.
- (2) Respond to the Office action by the deadline using the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS). Your response, or extension request, must be received by the USPTO on or before 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time of the last day of the response deadline. Otherwise, your application will be abandoned. See the Office action itself regarding how to respond.
- (3) Direct general questions about using USPTO electronic forms, the USPTO website, the application process, the status of your application, and whether there are outstanding deadlines to the Trademark Assistance Center \(TAC\).

After reading the Office action, address any question(s) regarding the specific content to the USPTO examining attorney identified in the Office action.

GENERAL GUIDANCE

- Check the status of your application periodically in the Trademark Status & Document Retrieval \(TSDR\) database to avoid missing critical deadlines.
- Update your correspondence email address to ensure you receive important USPTO notices about your application.
- Beware of trademark-related scams. Protect yourself from people and companies that may try to take financial advantage of you. Private companies may call you and pretend to be the USPTO or may send you communications that resemble official USPTO documents to trick you. We will never request your credit card number or social security number over the phone. Verify the correspondence originated from us by using your serial number in our database, TSDR, to confirm that it appears under the “Documents” tab, or contact the Trademark Assistance Center.
- Hiring a U.S.-licensed attorney. If you do not have an attorney and are not required to have one under the trademark rules, we encourage you to hire a U.S.-licensed attorney specializing in trademark law to help guide you through the registration process. The USPTO examining attorney is not your attorney and cannot give you legal advice, but rather works for and represents the USPTO in trademark matters.
